SHEPPARTON

Some of the murals in Shepparton's CBD celebrate and recognise local Aboriginal history and culture. Well-known artist Matt Adnate's works at 104 Fryers Street (next to GV Water) and at 172 Welsford Street depict the late William Cooper and the late Pastor Sir Douglas Nicholls KCVO OBE, MBE, Aunty Margaret Tucker (MBE) and Nanny Nora Charles, and Aunty Geraldine Briggs and Aunty Elizabeth Morgan.

Cam Scale's mural at 70 Welsford Street recognises local Aboriginal people who represented Australia in war, and pictures Private Daniel Cooper, a Yorta Yorta man killed in action during World War 1.

SHEPPARTON STREET ART MURALS

TATURA

TATURA MOSAIC MURALS - Stuart Mock Place

Depicting the history, development and future of Tatura, emphasising the importance of the Sun, Earth & Water.

TATURA MUSEUM MURAL - 49 Hogan Street

Depicting the Internment/POW Camps that existed in the area during World War 2. Artist: Jimmy D'Vate.

LEMNOS

CAMPBELLS' SOUP CAN

At the Campbell's Soup factory, 55 Lemnos North Road, a giant soup can towers over the factory.

DOOKIE

DOOKIE NOMADIC SILOS

Mary Street & Tallis Wine, 195 Major Plains Road
A silo trail with a twist, featuring sizeable artworks created by local and international artists on an assortment of up-cycled, decommissioned, portable grain silos. Designed with a distinctive point of difference, the works are nomadic in nature – created on moveable, transportable, re-locatable grain bins that can be grouped together or separately.

DOOKIE FLOWERING SUGAR GUM

Located in Mary Street, this beautiful old gum recently blossomed with a flourish of 150 large spectacular red flowers. Symbolising regeneration, optimism and inspiration, Dookie is celebrating the transformation and new life of its iconic sugar gum.
